

Skills for Europe

European Quality Assurance System for Vocational Education & Training

The European Quality Assurance System for Vocational Education & Training (EQAVET) provides confidence in the quality assurance of vocational education and training programmes in Europe – it builds mutual trust.

EQAVET defines the nature of good quality assurance systems, provides indicators to determine how well those quality systems are performing, and case studies of good practice.

The UK's quality assurance process complies with EQAVET principles.

Other tools you may be interested in:

The European Qualifications Framework helps you understand qualifications levels abroad.

Europass is a portfolio of documents that describes an individual's knowledge and skills in a way that's understood across Europe.

The European Skills, Competences and Occupations lists the knowledge and skills needed for specific jobs in Europe.

The Non-formal and Informal Learning system helps identify and assess all forms of learning.

The European Credit Transfer System for Vocational Education and Training is a framework that supports the recognition of learning that takes place during study visits and work placements overseas.

skillsforeurope.wales